

Electroplated Diamond & CBN Pins

These pins are having diamond mounted points which are used for small diameter machining and high speed grinding. Diamonds are deposited in every possible shape, Because of their superior cutting quality and shapes stability these tool are more suitable for machining material which can not be economically ground with the metal or resin bonded diamond tools. Due to wide range of capability it is also used for internal grinding of carbide dies and wear parts.

